Re-election of Mark M. Fagan. Republican Candidate for Mayor, Proves a Surprise to Even His Supporters.

HAS A MAJORITY OF 3,920.

Leader Robert Davis Declares He Was Deceived by Those He Considered Democrato, but He Takes the Defeat Good-Naturedly.

Mark M. Fagan, the Republican cansidate for Mayor of Jersey Cty, was reelected yesterday by a majority of 3,920 over Police Judge James J. Murphy, the Democratic nominee. With the exception of three Aldermen, the remainder of the Democratic ticket was elected.

P. Anthony Brock was elected Alder man at-Large over Frederick Eberhardt, James S. Nolan and Anthony Hauck, who ran for the office of Street and Water Commissioners on the Democratic ticket, had no opponents, the Republican panty refusing to nominate in view of the fact that a decision is awaited from the Supreme Court as to whether peeted victory, looked for a small majority.

The re-election of the Mayor was really the only interesting feature of the campaign derived by 12,300. The winning of Fagan shows file number of pasters that were used, especially when it is known that he was the only Republican outside of three Aldermen elected.

The re-election of Fagan is due, it is claimed, to the fact that he reduced the tax rate from $28 per $1,000 ratable to $27.50. He won preside by increasing the valuation on the property of corporations.

Mayor Fagan's majority two years ago when he defeated the democratic candidate, George T. Smith, one of the Vice-Preisde at $2, the greensylvania Railread, was 5,688.

Lemverata Supported Fagan. Fagan being pour suit a Catholic, as webber, Democrat, from the Fourth ward, and his religion, that of a Protestant, received the support of many can, was elected Senator by 1,000 ma-

Judge Murrhy is a Catholic, and when he was nominated it was considered he would be the only one who could restore the Mayor's loffec to Democratic power. His defeat was a big suffice to many prominent at publicans, including Chief of Police amea J. Murphy, who predicted his election was nore than 880.

The electon yesterday, owing to excellent management of Chief of Police Murphy, was announced at midnight there was much cheering and a mob parade went through the streets for several hours and passed the Mayor's home on Mercer leader Robert Davis, of the Democratic party, takes the defeat of Judge Murphy good naturedly. When asked how he could account for the crushing defeat of Murphy he said:

"I was deceived by those whom I considered Democrats."
